A C2 Productions Presentation

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Joy A. Booker-Thornton, CEO of C2 Productions which stands for (Creating.The.Way.Out), was founded C2P in 2010 with the belief that providing participating individuals with an exceptional event experience, one that immerses them in a world of class, fantasy, and impeccable customer service, would not only exceed their expectations and influence continued support, but will ignite a perspective that could very well, change the trajectory of their lives.

Her keen sense for marketing strategies and designing concepts has positioned her to work with some of the industry's most influential companies, such as, The Right Productions, a production company that houses annual celebrity concerts at The Aretha Amphitheater in Detroit, MI. She also received accolades for producing formal Piston's Player, Andre Drummonds, 21st Birthday Celebration on The Detroit Princess Boat. Since her youth, her strong passion for outreach has been recognized by the City of Detroit. Her dedication and contribution to her community has resulted in her being honored with four Spirit of Detroit Awards.

She and her mentor and business partner, Paul Glantz, now prepare for their joint ventures which will create a plethora of benefits, such as,

- Increasing the awareness and profitability for celebrities by gaining the attraction of established record labels, sponsors and promoters.
- Increasing the diversity and revenue for participating business associates through our unique strategies which are designed to appeal to the buying power of our target demographic.
- Depositing impactful and thought-provoking messages to our consumers through our interactive and unique presentations.
- Strengthening political and business relationships both regionally and nationally.
- Reinstating the standard business models that emphasizes the integrity and respect that are essential when welcoming and serving celebrities, patrons, and business associates.

OUR FOCUS

PURPOSE

C2P is on a mission to rise as a trusted, go-to powerhouse in the entertainment industry — and this proposal lays the foundation. By fusing the latest technology, deep market research, and targeted marketing tools, we're crafting a bold strategy designed to help C2P stand out, scale fast, and secure high-value opportunities. This isn't just about visibility — it's about influence and longevity.

We'll tap into proven systems and exclusive intel from vetted promoters, entertainers, and industry leaders to build a powerful project management plan that will:

- Drive higher profits
- Eliminate inefficiencies and outdated practices
- Solve staffing challenges
- Set a new standard for operational excellence

Best of all, this plan supports the kind of strategic networking and long-term partnerships that other businesses only dream about. C2P isn't just building a brand — we're building a movement.

OUR VALUE PROPOSITION

At C2P, we don't just produce events — we create unforgettable moments where celebrities, sponsors, and consumers come together in meaningful ways.

We understand what each group wants — connection, exposure, excitement — and we deliver it with precision, passion, and professionalism. By focusing on real needs and authentic engagement, we're building something more than an event... we're building a movement that sets a new industry standard. Our approach is simple, but powerful:

- ✦ The event concept attracts top-tier sponsors
- ✦ The celebrities bring the spotlight
- ✦ The experience draws in excited, loyal consumers

When these three worlds collide, magic happens — and that's what makes C2P the link that brings it all together.

GET MORE CLIENTS DIRECTLY!

They've seen you on social media — NOW, let them experience your brand in a trusted environment where everything CONNECTS!

dro.

Platinum-selling artist, Grammy-nominated rapper, actor, entrepreneur, community advocate, and philanthropist — is a multifaceted force whose influence extends far beyond music. Bursting onto the scene with the rock-smooth hit "Shoulder Lean," Young Dro quickly cemented his place as a cornerstone of southern hip-hop. As a longtime collaborator with T.I. and Gucci Mane, Dro brought a charismatic blend of lyrical wit and Atlanta swagger that shaped a generation and solidified his legacy in music.

With a career spanning nearly two decades, his evolution from chart-topping artist to purpose-driven leader has captivated audiences both on and off the stage. Whether performing, acting, mentoring, or creating, Dro continues to reinvent himself while staying rooted in authenticity.

Beyond the spotlight, Young Dro is the founder of It Still Takes a Village — a nonprofit organization dedicated to uplifting at-risk youth, underserved families, and entire communities through mentorship, educational outreach, and life skills development. With a powerful focus on mental health awareness, violence prevention, and second chances, Dro is using his platform to disrupt cycles and build futures. His mission is clear: real success is measured not by fame or fortune, but by the lives you impact along the way.

From platinum plaques to powerful purpose, Young Dro proves that redemption is possible — and that you can be both a star and servant to your community.

GINU WINE

Elgin Baylor Lumpkin better known by his stage name Ginuwine, is an American R&B singer, songwriter, dancer, and actor. He was born in Washington, D.C. and named after NBA legend Elgin Baylor, a fellow D.C. native. After Graduating High School at Forestville High School now known as Forestville Military Academy, he later attended and graduated from Prince George's Community College in Largo, Maryland, where he earned a paralegal associate's degree.

He began his career as a member of Swing Mob in the early 1990s. He started as a solo artist. In the mid-1990s, Ginuwine has released a number of multi-platinum and platinum-selling albums and singles, becoming one of R&B's top artists during the late 1990s and early 2000s. He had significant commercial success with his first four albums. These albums include: Ginuwine, The Bachelor Double Platinum, 100% Ginuwine double Platinum, "The Life Also Platinum, and The Senior went Gold. According to Billboard, Ginuwine has sold roughly 10 million albums in the US. He also received the Urban Music Icon award at the 2021 Black Music Honors. His music and talent is timeless and undeniable.

Jeazy

Close friend and legendary DJ Drama revealed how Jeazy has changed the rap game, popular culture, fashion and changed the standards of healing.

"When it comes to Jeazy, he has one of the most important mixtapes and albums in not just southern rap music, but in hip-hop in general," he said. "We call it 'The Top 10' and 'The Motivation' and those are classics that are going to be heralded as top 10 or top 20 albums when we discuss hip-hop 50."

Georgia native Young Jeazy, whose real name is Jay Jenkins moved to Atlanta at a young age and has represented the city well, won National Radio Personality Honors.

Jeazy first signed to Def Jam back in 2004. Since then, he's released ten studio albums — with the latest being 2023's "The Jeazy 2." He's had a number of successful singles with other artists, including Akon, Kanye West and Christina Milian. He's a multi-platinum selling artist, and according to The Guardian, he — along with T.I. and Gucci Mane — brought trap music into the mainstream.

Jeazy has made a successful career in the rapping industry and is known for his impactful albums. He has made a substantial net worth because of his excellent performance in the music industry, his partnerships in beverage brands and his newest ventures in Real Estate.
